

Group Office Overhead Expense Insurance

for Members of the American Academy of Pediatrics

Underwritten by
New York Life Insurance Company

Without you, what would happen to your practice? And without your practice, what would happen to you? Would the bills stop coming in just because you became disabled? If you find these questions troubling, Office Overhead Expense Insurance can help provide a comforting solution.

As a member of the American Academy of Pediatrics, you have an opportunity others don't. The AAP Insurance Program has put together features on Group Office Overhead Expense Insurance that helps protect your employees' salaries, your pediatric practice, and your obligations if you are unable to work.

Affordability

The AAP Insurance Program gives you access to group buying power. Unlike plans you might find in the general market, you get the benefit of your group association. Plus, as part of a group plan, you can never be singled out for a rate increase.

Advocacy

For decades, the AAP Group Insurance Trust has been sponsoring customized plans to meet the needs of pediatricians. Our plan administrator, USI Affinity, employs a team to answer questions and help you understand your options. We're your advocate, and we work hard to understand and anticipate your needs as a pediatrician.

Stability

AAP Group Insurance Trust and USI Affinity have gone through the paces of due diligence to ensure that you're getting coverage from a respected insurance carrier. This plan is underwritten by New York Life, a leading insurance provider who is rated A++ (Superior) by A.M. Best for financial strength¹ and is a recognized leader in service and claims experience.

Eligibility

Members of the American Academy of Pediatrics who are under age 60 and residents of the U.S., not in Active Duty in the Armed Forces² and are at FULL-TIME WORK³ may apply for coverage. Coverage is contingent upon maintaining membership in the AAP.

How the Plan Works

You can request to receive monthly benefits for up to 12 or up to 24 months for covered overhead expenses if you suffer a Total Disability while insured under the policy due to a covered illness or accident, and as a result, are continuously and completely unable to perform all of the substantial and material duties of your usual profession. If the result of an accident, your Total Disability must begin within 30 days of said accident. You must be under the care of a licensed physician for your covered disability. Benefits are payable regardless of other insurance coverage you may have, and this coverage automatically renews, as long as applicable terms and conditions are met.

Covered Overhead Expenses

There are many expenses that this plan will cover to help keep your practice running. Eligible expenses must be generally accepted as tax deductible by the IRS and include: rent and leased equipment, maintenance of existing equipment, salaries for existing employees, utilities and phone, taxes, insurance premiums, and depreciation and other fixed overhead expenses as are normal and customary in the operation of your practice. You must actually incur the overhead expense in the course of operation of your office.

If your practice is incorporate, this plan pays benefits in proportion to your share of ownership at the time of your covered disability. If you have more than one office, benefits are paid for the total of all eligible overhead expenses up to your selected limits.

Eligible Overhead Expenses do not include: your salary, fees, drawing accounts, or other remuneration received; the salary or fee of any individual in the same profession as you or hired after the date your disability begins; income taxes; personal expenses; charitable contributions; the cost of office equipment; the cost of implements of your profession; the cost of auto rental/leasing; the cost of landscaping; or the payment of principal on any indebtedness.

Your Choice of Monthly Benefit Amount

Apply for monthly benefit amounts between $1,000 and $10,000 in $100 increments. The benefit payable will be the lesser of the Monthly Benefit Amount in force and the Eligible Overhead Expenses incurred.

30-Day Free Look

Once your coverage is approved, you will be sent a Certificate of Insurance summarizing your benefits under the Plan. If you are not completely satisfied with the terms of the Certificate, you may return it, without claim, within 30 days. We will refund your entire premium contribution and invalidate your coverage.

Plan Features & Benefits

Waiting Period

The Waiting Period is the number of consecutive days you must be Totally Disabled before benefits can be paid. This plan has a 30-Day Waiting Period.

Tax-Deductible Premiums

Premiums are typically tax-deductible as a business expense. Any benefit payments are generally taxable. You should consult with your personal tax advisor for further information.

Recurring Disability

Under this plan, recurring disabilities that are due to the same or related cause qualify for coverage under the same benefit period and subject to one waiting period, unless they are separated by a return to Full-Time Work of at least six months.

Waiver of Premium

It's good to know that your insurance will continue should you become totally disabled. Premium payments for your coverage will be waived if you become totally disabled for a period of at least six months. Please refer to your Certificate of Insurance for applicable conditions.

Worldwide Coverage

Once your coverage is effective, you are protected wherever you travel—whether for business or personal—as long as you remain a U.S. resident⁴.

When Coverage Ends

Your coverage will remain in force until the earlier of: a) you reach age 70; b) you fail to pay premiums when due; c) you discontinue your membership in the association; d) the Group Policy is terminated by New York Life or the Policyholder; e) the Group Policy is modified to exclude the class of insured in which you belong; f) you are no longer at FULL-TIME WORK; g) you begin Active Duty in the Armed Forces; h) or you elect to end coverage.

Coverage Exclusions

Disabilities that are due or related to the following are excluded from coverage: air travel (except when a fare-paying passenger on a licensed commercial, non-military aircraft); condition that has an Impairment Restriction as described in the Certificate of Insurance; your voluntary intake of drugs, intoxicants or narcotics, unless as prescribed by a physician; a Pre-Existing Condition (as described below); self-inflicted injury while sane or insane; pregnancy, except complications thereof; declared or undeclared war or act of war; and any disability which does not require a doctor's regular care (regular care of doctor does not include yourself, a close relative, or a household member).

A Pre-Existing Condition: an injury or sickness for which you consulted a doctor, received any medical services or supplies, or took any medication during the 6 months immediately before becoming insured under this Plan. Benefits are not payable for a disability which is classified as a Pre-Existing Condition until the end of 24 consecutive months during which you have been insured under this Plan.

Summary of Terms & Conditions

When Coverage Begins

Coverage becomes effective on the first day of the month following the date the application is approved, provided the initial premium is paid within 31 days after billing and any person proposed for insurance is at FULL-TIME WORK. If you are not at FULL-TIME WORK on the date your application is approved, coverage will not go into effect until the date you return to FULL-TIME WORK, provided you are still eligible and the date is within three months of the date the insurance would have otherwise taken effect. Payment of a premium contribution does not mean coverage is in force.

When Benefits End

Benefits will cease at the earlier of the following: a) your covered disability ends; b) the maximum benefit period ends; c) if required proof of continuing disability is not provided; d) you stop incurring eligible expenses or; e) three months after your death, if you die after having been totally disabled for at least 180 days.

How New York Life Obtains Information and Underwrites Your Request for Group Office Overhead Expense Insurance

In this notice, references to “you” and “your” include any person proposed for insurance. Information regarding insurability will be treated as confidential. In considering whether the person(s) in your request for insurance qualify for insurance, we will rely on the medical information you provide, and on the information you AUTHORIZE us to obtain from your physician, other medical practitioners and facilities, other insurance companies to which you have applied for insurance and MIB, Inc. (“MIB”). MIB is a not-for-profit organization of insurance companies, which operates an information exchange on behalf of its members. If you apply for life or health insurance coverage, a claim for benefits is submitted to an MIB member company, medical or non-medical information may be given to MIB, and such information may then be furnished by MIB, upon request, to a member company.

Your AUTHORIZATION may be used for a period of 24 months from the date you signed the application for insurance, unless sooner revoked. The AUTHORIZATION may be revoked at any time by notifying New York Life in writing at the address provided. Your revocation will not be effective to the extent New York Life or any other person already has disclosed or collected information or taken other action in reliance on it, or to the extent that New York Life has a legal right to contest a claim under an insurance certificate or the certificate itself. The information New York Life obtains through your AUTHORIZATION may become subject to further disclosure. For example, New York Life may be required to provide it to insurance, regulatory or other government agencies. In this case, the information may no longer be protected by the rules governing your AUTHORIZATION.

MIB and other insurance companies may also furnish New York Life, its subsidiaries or the Plan Administrator with non-medical information (such as driving records, past convictions, hazardous sport or aviation activity, use of alcohol or drugs, and other applications for insurance). The information provided may include information that may predate the time frame stated on the medical questions section, if any, on this application. This information may be used during the underwriting and claims processes, where permitted by law.

New York Life may release this information to the Plan Administrator, other insurance companies to which you may apply for life and health insurance, or to which a claim for benefits may be submitted and to others whom you authorize in writing, however, this will not be done in connection with test results concerning Acquired Immune Deficiency Syndrome (AIDS) or Human Immunodeficiency Virus (HIV). We may also make a brief report of your protected health information to MIB, but we will not disclose our underwriting decision.

New York Life will not disclose such information to anyone except those you authorize or where required or permitted by law. Information in our files may be seen by New York Life and Plan Administrator employees, but only on a “need to know” basis in considering your request. Upon receipt of all requested information, we will make a determination as to whether your request for insurance can be approved.

If we cannot provide the coverage you requested, we will tell you why. If you feel our information is inaccurate, you will be given a chance to correct or complete the information in our files. Upon written request to New York Life or MIB, you will be provided with non-medical information. Generally, medical information will be given either directly to the proposed insured or to a medical professional designated by the proposed insured. Your request is handled in accordance with the Federal Fair Credit Reporting Act procedures. If you question the accuracy of the information provided by MIB, you may contact MIB and seek a correction. MIB’s information office is: MIB, Inc., 50 Braintree Hill Park, Suite 400, Braintree, MA 02184-8734, telephone 866-692-6901. Information for consumers about MIB may be obtained on its website at www.mib.com.
